Fast Forward and Teen New Media Programs At the ICA Coming in August— Summer Video Bootcamp

The Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA) is putting a creative spin on summer school for teenagers. The ICA presents Summer Video Bootcamp on Tuesday, August 12 through Friday, August 15, 1-5 pm. This program can be used as a prerequisite for acceptance into Fast Forward, the ICA's accelerated media program for high school students.

Bootcamp is an intensive video, audio, and new media art program at the ICA.

Participants meet daily, creating independent new media work for critique, presentation, and distribution inspired by the ICA's permanent collection and the museum's innovative architecture. Regular visits to the galleries provide inspiration for discussion, ultimately influencing the work of the participants.

For more information or to register for the program, please contact Rosanna Flouty, Teen Programs Manager, at rflouty@icaboston.org, 617-478-3132, or go to website at www.icaboston.org/programs/teens.

Fee:

Free for Boston Public School students; $300 for non Boston Public School students; $250 for members; required lab fee: $ 30. Open to high school students ages 14 -18. All video, sound and computer equipment is provided.
